VII. Examination of Session Members Elect

Book of Order G-2.0402

When persons have been elected to the ordered ministry of ruling elder or deacon, the session shall provide a period of study and preparation, after which the session shall examine them as to their personal faith; knowledge of the doctrine, government, and discipline contained in the Constitution of the church; and the duties of the ministry. The session shall also confer with them as to their willingness to undertake the ministry appropriate to the order. If the examination is approved, the session shall appoint a day for the service of ordination and installation.

Property

Building usage applications: Ada Junior High School, and Cub Scout Fun Day (attached)

A request to use our facilities was submitted to property committee. Due to a wedding being on the same day the property chairs initially considered denying the request. After new information was received we now believe we should approve and put it before the session for consideration. The property chairs also believe the property usage form could use some updating to collect more information I.e. window of time facility will be used etc.
